- e. Section 633.202, Florida Statutes, relating to the Florida Fire Prevention Code.

Notwithstanding the application of the exemption(s) noted above, or in the absence of any applicable exemption, the County hereby publishes the following information in accordance with the provisions of Section 125.66(3), Florida Statutes:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance, including a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals, and welfare:
Improve protection, regulation, and control of animals in the county by repealing and replacing Chapter 10 of the Escambia County Code of Ordinances, entitled "Animals," in its entirety to bring it into compliance with Florida Statute and provide for additional protections for public safety while eliminating superfluous verbiage.

2. Estimate of direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the County, including, if any, the following:
N/A

a) Estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur:

b) Any new charge or fee imposed on businesses or for which businesses will be responsible:

c) Estimate of the County's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs:

3. A good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:
N/A

4. Additional information, if any, which may include the methodology used to derive the information above, such as soliciting comments from businesses in the County regarding the potential impact, and any efforts to reduce the potential impact on businesses. If applicable, may also state the proposed ordinance applies to all similarly situated persons (individuals and businesses) and, therefore, does not only impose costs upon businesses.
N/A

Approved as to form and legal sufficiency.
